

Chasing the Dream

Poverty makes it even tougher for people to reach their goals, which is why it's so important for sponsored children to have hope, plan for their futures, and have educational opportunities. Think about your own hopes and dreams while you do these activities.

Quiz WHAT KIND OF JOB FITS YOU?

1. You feel bored, so you ...

- a. play hospital with your stuffed animals.
- b. put together a jigsaw puzzle.
- c. call a friend on the phone.
- d. redecorate your bedroom.
- e. take your dog for a walk.

2. Your role in the Christmas play is to ...

- a. guide audience members to their seats.
- b. build the props and scenes for the play.
- c. star as Joseph or Mary.
- d. write lines for the actors to say.
- e. train the animal actors.

3. You'd love to take a trip to ...

- a. an orphanage to cook and clean for kids.
- b. Space Camp to float in the zero-gravity room.
- c. Peru to learn the Spanish language.
- d. the School of Rock to play guitar.
- e. the Rocky Mountains to camp and explore.

4. For a class project, you choose to research ...

- a. how penicillin cures sickness.
- b. the history of Egyptian mummies.
- c. the best speeches ever given.
- d. reports of UFO sightings.
- e. plants that eat insects.

5. You'd enjoy watching a movie about ...

- a. a kid trying to make friends in a new town.
- b. robots taking over the world.
- c. kids who start their own singing contest.
- d. a closet that leads to a magical land.
- e. a talking cat that gets lost in the woods.

6. Your parents describe you as ...

- a. generous.
- b. curious.
- c. social.
- d. artistic.
- e. outdoorsy.

RESULTS

Add up your score by totaling the number you chose of each letter. Look at the results below then research these professions and see what you think!

Mostly a's

You love helping people, so a job as a doctor, teacher, pastor, firefighter or counselor may be great for you!

Mostly c's

Communicating is your strong suit. Consider a job as a journalist, marketer, performer, lawmaker or diplomat.

Mostly d's

With your creative spirit, you'd likely do well as a musician, designer, chef, artist or filmmaker.

Mostly b's

You're a problem solver, so you may make a great astronaut, chemist, financial planner, engineer or pilot.

Mostly e's

You connect with God's creation, so you could make a great veterinarian, landscape architect, farmer, park ranger or botanist.

